Intercession

- 1 Prayer for Sunday School Camp Preparation: Pray that the Lord will watch over the Sunday School administrative team as they plan and prepare for the camp in the coming months. May He grant them wisdom, unity, and clear direction so that the entire preparation process will go smoothly. Pray also for each teacher, that the Lord will provide them with sufficient strength and love as they lead the students during the camp. May the Lord work in the hearts of every participating student, so that they may gain much from the camp and have their lives built up and renewed.
- 2 Prayer for Youth Fellowship Camp Preparation: Pray that the Lord will watch over the youth fellowship leaders and workers as they prepare for the camp in the coming months. May He grant them wisdom and strength, guiding every detail so that the whole process will go smoothly. Pray that the co-workers may personally experience God's faithfulness and provision through their service, growing in unity and encouraging one another. Above all, pray that the Lord will use this camp to help each camper grow spiritually, committing their lives to follow Him and not stray from His path.

How Can I Get in the Routine of Regular Bible Study?

by Gelna Marshall

A Plan for Study

When I was in my twenties and early thirties, I was an avid runner. I trained for several races, and part of my training plan required me to set out my running clothes and shoes and charge my devices (an iPod shuffle back then!) before I went to bed. Once I woke up, I had some coffee, studied the Bible, put on my running gear, and headed out the door. Making a plan once enabled me to simply enact the plan each day. I didn't have to decide how or when to run. The plan was in place. I just followed the plan.

That's the practical approach I suggest you take with Bible study. Choose your time and place and study plan now. Gather your supplies, and put them in your designated location. Then simply apply the plan tomorrow. And the day after that. And the day after that. This will go far in establishing a nonnegotiable habit to meet with your Lord each day or night.

I like to think about the frequency component of study this way: I need to study God's word as often as I need him to help and transform me. That's every single day of my life. So the principle set before us in Psalm 1 is to come to Scripture regularly, daily—really, all the time

But keep in mind that a principle isn't a command. And sometimes life has a way of interrupting our best-laid plans. It's normal to have days when we miss our study time. Illness, parenting young children, missing an alarm, work crises—these are all ordinary experiences that might force us to miss our study time. I'm a mom to two children who, when they were little, joined my study time on a regular basis or needed me to put down my Bible and hold them instead. I also suffer from some chronic illnesses that make sleeping incredibly hard, and I've had seasons when I had to opt for extra rest instead of deep study time.
